

1 BILL NUMBER R-81-03-42

2 RESOLUTION R- 28-81

4 A RESOLUTION opposing payment by 5 City of Fort Wayne of patrolman's 6 wage to any police officer when working on union business

7 WHEREAS, it has been reported that Patrolmen's Benevolent
8 Association has made demand for a full time city paid union
9 President; and,

10 WHEREAS, dues are paid by members of the Patrolmen's 11 Benevolent Association for the purpose of fostering the 12 objectives of said union; and,

13 WHEREAS, the City of Fort Wayne pays a full patrolman's
14 wage of Seventeen Thousand Seventy-five Dollars ($17,075.00)
15 for this current city year to each patrolman performing ser-16 vices as a police officer plus a portion of the pension of 17 said patrolman, plus other fringe benefits and should not be 18 required to pay the expense of union activities of the Patrol-
19 men's Benevolent Association from civil city funds or other 20 city funds because, among other things, such a payment would 21 be from taxpayers' money for the espousal of union activities
22 which activities in and of themselves further the interests
23 of the members of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association; and,

24 WHEREAS, the union activities in and of themselves have 25 been declared legal but are in furtherance of the private 26 interests of the members of the union.

27 NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Common Council of 28 the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana, does hereby go on record as 29 opposing any payment of wage to any police officer while 30 engaged on work solely in the union's business.
